

RIGHT TO PLAY
PROTECT. EDUCATE. EMPOWER.

Vacancy Title: Data Collectors (Enumerators - 10)

Duty Station: Kampala, Uganda

Deadline for Applications: 14th September 2025

About the Role

Right To Play is an international organization with a mission to protect, educate, and empower children to rise above adversity using the power of play. We are implementing the Multi - Tusobola Project, funded by the Third Millennium Foundation, which promotes equitable quality education, life skills, and health-related outcomes among children and youth in Naguru and Kinawataka communities.

As part of the Endline Evaluation for the Multi - Tusobola Project, Right To Play Uganda is recruiting 10 Data Collectors. These Data Collectors will support the Monitoring, Evaluation, and Learning (MEL) team in gathering high-quality data through participatory approaches that amplify the voices of children, teachers, parents, and community members. The evidence generated will inform project outcomes, donor accountability, and future programming.

Key Responsibilities

- Attend mandatory training on evaluation tools, participatory methods, and data collection procedures.
- Participate in tool pretesting to ensure usability and reliability.
- Conduct interviews and group discussions with children, youth, teachers, parents, and community stakeholders using established protocols and digital tools (SurveyCTO).
- Achieve daily and overall survey targets.
- Check collected data for accuracy, completeness, and consistency before submission.
- Safeguard respondent confidentiality and adhere to ethical research guidelines.
- Properly maintain assigned equipment such as tablets and chargers.
- Perform any other duties assigned by the MEL team.

Qualifications and Experience

- Bachelor's degree in social sciences or related field.
- At least 3 months of relevant experience in data collection or field research.
